MULTI-PURPOSE TABLES

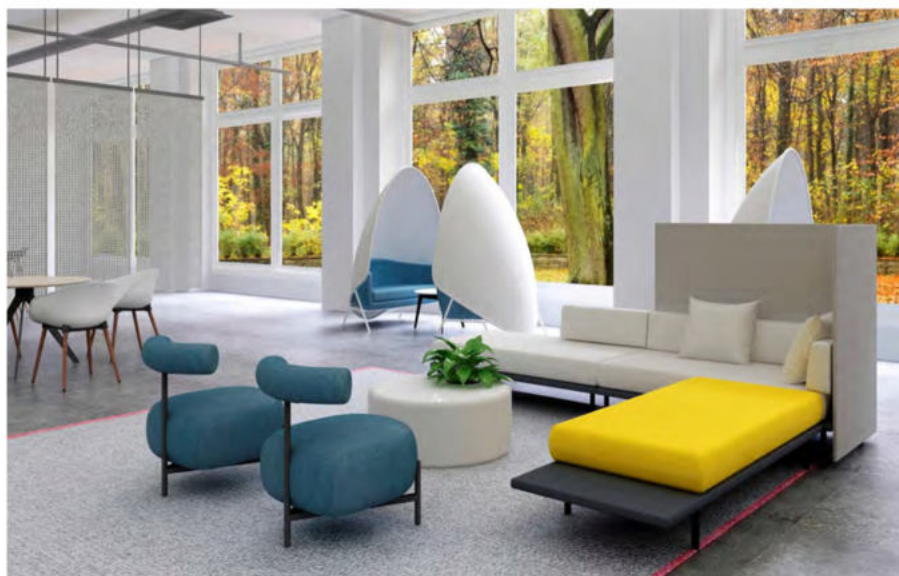

BRAINSTORMING AREA

MODULO

Collaboration zones provide a natural crossroad for coworkers to meet and share ideas. They can be as informal as a large table in the break room or as formal as a walled conference room.

Remember to support those spaces with the necessary tools and flexibility employees need to work together.

MEETING PODS & PHONE BOOTHS

VIS-A-VIS

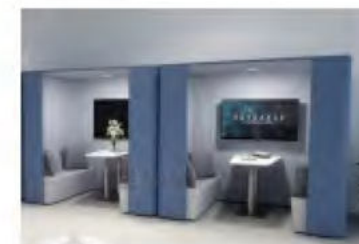

It is known for a fact that the need to work privately is a basic human nature when it comes to focus on crucial personal pursuances.

With more and more companies are literally tearing down walls in favor of open-plan office, access to private spaces must be made a priority.

This is where Vis-a-vis series could come in as an absolute complement to your open-plan office.
